Practicing Reiki in Health Care: What You Need to Succeed with Pamela Miles

Registration:
reikiinmedicine.org/reiki-continuing-education/#medical

Atlanta host:
Kandi Mullen, RMT
kandi@reiki4wellbeing.com
770.331.2688

Limited seating

April 12-15, 2012 | 10 AM - 6:30 PM (earlier Sun.)

Class fee: $545 before March 8 | $595 thereafter

Cancellation minus $35 until March 8; none later

Druid Chase Office Pk | 2801 Buford Hwy, #T-30

Atlanta | Georgia 30329-2144

What will I learn in this intensive?

- What doctors need to know about Reiki
- What doctors do not want to hear
- How to credibly address the issue of safety
- How Reiki treatment benefits patients, families, and staff
- How to speak of the benefits of Reiki treatment without making claims
- How to volunteer responsibly
- What the science tells us
- What science you don't want to mention
- What's the most critical factor for your success?

Attendees will be given a 4 phase model proposal for integrating Reiki into conventional health care and strategies for building their Reiki business.

Pamela Miles is a Reiki master and integrative health care consultant in New York City practicing Reiki since 1986, who has pioneered the integration of Reiki treatment into conventional medicine, and remains the foremost authority in the field. Pamela is the author of "REIKI: A Comprehensive Guide" and numerous peer-reviewed medical papers. Pamela has created Reiki programs in hospitals, collaborated on medical research, and presented Reiki in medical schools, including Harvard and Yale. She is internationally recognized for her ability to express Reiki with clarity and elegance.

Even after practicing Reiki for 17 years, I came away knowing how to communicate Reiki more effectively and determine the validity of Reiki research. — Sharon Yeskel, Reiki Master